GIVEN BY MAYOR

Accomplishments of Past Year and Plans For This Year Are Set Out.

The third annual message of Mayor F. W. Keller setting forth the work of the municipal government for the past year was made public Saturday. The message opens with a discussion of the city's financial condition and continues with a review of the activities of the various departments.

The report shows the total net assets of the city Jan. 1, 1917, to be $2,308,879.44. The bonded debt is $519,500, the bonding margin being $123,377. Total of cash on hand Mrs. C. H. Bennet and Miss Ina is $283,150.75. A floating debt of Rose of Detroit have been called to $69,000 added to the bonded indebtthis city because of the illness of edness makes the city's net indebttheir mother, Mrs. J. C. Leibing, edness $539,425.70, a per capita debt of $7.93.

The report makes a comparison Washington av., is spending the with the cost of government in 17 other cities in South Bend's class and points out that the per capita cost here is lower. The tax rate for 1917 is $1.25, a reduction of four cents since 1908. This reduction is in the face of a general rise.

> Park Area Increased. The park areas of the city were increased over half by the purchase of the Rum Village tract. Property north of the city hall was purchased as the site for a proposed annex to this building. The recreation department reports an attendance of one-third of a million.

Reductions in gas, electric and insurance rates in the city will amount pleted, and $27,000 worth of new fire fighting apparatus purchased, including an aerial truck and booster pump.

The report also mentions the sanitary survey, says that beggars and fakirs have been driven from the city, and discusses miscellaneous enterprises, besides asserting that the moral condition of the city has been
